TICKETS

You should keep your ticket safe as replacements will not be issued. You must show or purchase your ticket as you board. The ticket remains the property of the company and must be produced for inspection and, if requested to do so, be surrendered upon demand to an authorised Company Official. You will not be permitted to use any Supreme Travel service unless you have a valid ticket for the day you wish to travel. When your ticket expires you must leave the bus or purchase another ticket. Extensions will not be given.

TICKETS ARE NOT TRANSFERABLE

Look after your ticket. If you lose it, you lose your ride. Passengers found travelling without a valid ticket will be charged the full hop-on, hop-off fare.

CHILDREN

A child is defined as being aged from 5-15 years. Only one child under 5 years accompanied by one adult may travel free as long as they do not occupy a seat to the exclusion of a fare-paying passenger. Children must be accompanied by an adult at all times. Children must pay for their headphones.

DEPARTURE POINTS & TIMES

The company endeavours to provide departure points and times for the service which are as accurate as possible. However, the company reserves the right to vary such departure points and times without notice to you, as circumstances require.

ROUTE

The company reserves the right to deviate from the route of a service in the event of marches, parades, or where reasonably prudent to do so in the light of circumstances beyond the Company's control.

BUSES

While the Company endeavours to operate its famous open-top double-decker buses, it reserves the right to operate closed-top single decked buses from time to time, especially in bad weather. The company operates a timetabled service and reserves, the right for safety reasons, to refuse you access to travel on a particular departure. For safety reasons you are required to remain seated on the upper deck while the bus is in motion. As we operate a hop-on hop-off service, seats cannot be guaranteed on either deck.

SERVICE

The company reserves the right to cancel the tours in bad weather.

REFUNDS
